

The first release of the library as a separate package. The library's API has been updated and is not compatible with version 3.7 if this library was only used by DigiDoc3 client software.

Known issues:

- If a data file with a colon in its name is added to a BDOC container, the signature created will be erroneous.